What is OHS Essentials?

Free confidential, independent and personalised advice to keep your employees safe.

iiNexus Global is honored to be on the panel of trusted safety consultants for the WorkSafe OHS Essentials program.

This FREE OHS consultation will educate you on your safety obligations and provide tailored advice on managing safety in your workplace.

Over 12 months you will work closely with an iiNexus Global health and safety consultant on improving safety in your business. Over three visits our consultant will develop a practical and personalised action plan for you. The best part – our consultant comes to your business at a time that's convenient for you.

Why is safety good for business?

Fostering a positive safety culture, implementing effective safety risk controls and committing to continuous improvement is not only good for your workers but great for your business.

Through the OHS Essentials Program you can learn vital tools to ensure your employees stay safe –helping improve productivity and lower the risk of workplace injury.

What should I expect?

During a visit, iiNexus OHS consultant will explain employers' obligations under Victorian health and safety laws and help you identify safety hazards and risks for your business.

Your action plan

iiNexus OHS consultant will work with you to develop a personalised action plan for your business. The plan will outline the safety hazards identified and how to minimise the risks. It is designed for you to adapt over time.

Am I eligible?

Are you a:

1. small or medium business

Small and medium-sized businesses (up to 60 employees) with a WorkCover insurance policy.

2. sole trader with contractors

Sole traders with contractors may be also eligible to apply but must hold a WorkCover insurance policy.
